

Ms. Brenda Faye Clark

Brenda Faye Clark's mission in her adult life has been to help whose lives have been traumatized by abuse from others. To this end, her participating with Zoe's Wings Foundation Incorporated allows her to bring services to many by making a positive impact in their homes, communities and providing basic needs for growth movement in their lives.

Brenda Faye Clark is the founder of victim2Victory Ministries, a 16-year-old non-denominational, multi-cultural ministry devoted to teaching, training, and equipping women to come out of sexual abuse victimization. Often this also involves release from physical, emotional, verbal, spiritual, and financial abuse. Brenda has been active for 35 years in the communities of Liberal, KS, Hayward, CA, Denver and Aurora, CO with groups and ministries that provide food, life skills training, victorious life restoration, and ministry for the soul's recovery.

The vision of Zoe's Wings Foundation Incorporated and the vision of moving people from the vicissitudes of life to the victory of living life forward is one she heartily supports. To be a member of Zoe's Wing Foundation Incorporated is a highly esteemed honor for Ms. Clark and she is committed to its success and those they work with.

Brenda is a local and international speaker, Licensed Professional Counselor, and published author of "Moving from victim2Victory – The Manual" – the healing curriculum in book/workbook form. It is available on Amazon.com as Victim to Victory, the Manual. Apostle Brenda's heart is to turn "victims to victorious warriors!!!"

Apostle Brenda is also the founder and owner of Victory Counseling Services, located in Aurora, CO. In business for 10 years, she works to assist others in receiving the victory over trauma, emotional and spiritual concerns to fulfill their life destiny. Her clinical designations are LPC, and CIGT.

Apostle Brenda received her ordination from He Giveth More Grace Ministries, Redmond MI, her Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership, and Master of Arts degree in Counseling Psychology from Colorado Christian University.
