

510 E Avenue J, PB2
Temple, Texas 76504
www.zoeswings.com
zgrant@zoewings.org

For Immediate Release

News Contact:

Zoe Grant, Founder and President
Zoe's Wings Foundation, Inc.
254-421-7930
zgrant@zoewings.org

TEMPLE, TX (March 6, 2021) – Zoe's Wings Foundation, Inc. partners with A New Day Fellowship Church and A New Day Learning Academy to distribute water donated by Austin Urban League and Innovation Black Chamber of Commerce.

Date: Saturday, March 6, 2021 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Location: A New Day Fellowship Church (Gymnasium) 510 E. Avenue J, Temple, TX 76504

Zoe's Wings will distribute a 10pk masks for residents to continue with COVID-19 protection.

Water and masks will be distributed until supplies run out.

Zoe's Wings Foundation, Inc. and A New Day Learning Academy are members of the Innovation Black Chamber of Commerce

About Zoe's Wings Foundation, Inc.

We provide various services concerning affordable housing, house rehabilitation, and quality of life to the underserved Single Parent, Families, Seniors, Disabled, and Veterans residents. We are structured exclusively to meet the target population by their demographic descriptors to serve Urban/Inner-City communities with the very best in high-quality professional services to help reach obtainable health and safety goals while assisting in developing skills to improve their life's destiny of youth and young business owners within the same community.

Innovation Black Chamber of Commerce

Mission: Promote economic development of business entities while strategically focusing on Black-owned, veteran-owned and technology companies.

Vision: IBCC will foster a community that promotes economic independence and prosperity across Texas; by providing Innovative technology-driven training. We are committed to preparing business leaders and entrepreneurs to maximize a competitive edge in the global market. We provide premier continuing education which stimulates business and economic development, provides business advocacy, and empowers the black community.