

Ms. Zoe Grant

Ms. Grant offers encouragement and support to all mankind in various circumstances of life through volunteering, mentoring, prayer, education, and donation to organizations with like missions. She is the Founder & CEO of several businesses and active in many community organizations. She takes pride in being an African American woman and business owner and a mentor to many new entrepreneurs looking to get started.

Her lifelong compassion and dedication to the well-being and safety of men, women, and children has prompted her to launch Zoe's Wings Foundation, Inc. In efforts of giving back to the community, she founded the 501(c)(3) organization to help low to moderate-income families by assisting with home repairs, education, and financial assistance for affordable homes.

Ms. Grant has over 39 years of CAD design experience in Civil, Structural, Mechanical, Electrical, Reclamation and Mining and Specialty Construction Field. She is the owner of ZGL Engineering Services, Inc., established in 2005 (Denver, CO), and ZGL, Inc. (Temple, TX). Her businesses offer services to engineering firms across the United States and has accomplished many high priority projects including the Third Locks of The Panama Canal and the largest Gross Reservoir in Colorado.

She is also the Founder of New Life Community Development Center, Inc. (Temple, TX), which works with youth to senior citizens in preparation for entering and re-entering the workforce. She enjoys working with young people and mentoring in her community to help them identify their skills and develop themselves.

She is a proud member of many local organizations and City government boards that serve the residents of the City of Temple and Bell County. She sits on the boards of Family Promise of East Bell County, Inc. as Treasurer and Finance and Static Site Committee, Baylor Scott & White Medical Center Patient and Family Advisory Council, 5 Pearlz of Hope as Vice President (Killeen, TX), A New Day Fellowship Church, A New Day Learning Academy, and the City of Temple Comprehensive Plan Advisory Council, City of Temple Neighborhood Revitalization Advisory Board, and City of Temple Zoning Board of Adjustment, and Temple Founders Lion Club Board Member, Temple Railroad and Heritage Museum Foundation. She is the Temple NAACP Secretary and Outreach Committee Chair, and member of C.A.R.E. Leadership Network, Temple Chamber of Commerce, Innovation Black Chamber of Commerce, Texas Stars Toastmasters, and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. and a Prayer Intercessor for victim-2-Victory a Faith-Based Support Group Ministry for survivors of incest, child sexual abuse & rape. has thousands of hours of untiring community service.

Ms. Grant has two adult children, a son, 38, and daughter, 35, with 7- and 1-year-old granddaughters. All are the joys of her life as well as an inspiration to her, making her life complete. Her free time is spread between many pastimes including music, reading, crafting, traveling, and of course shopping. She is a member of A New Day Fellowship Church and is a licensed minister. She loves to offer up praise and worship to God.

"I love my life, my struggles, and my accomplishments and I strive to live it to the fullest. I have worked hard and achieved much. I can't wait to see what shows up next!"